

THE COURIER.

A Popular Paper of Modern Times.

Saturday Evening, Jan. 14th, 1888.

The Courier can be found at Windsor Hotel News Stand, Capital Hotel News Stand, O'Connell's Dining Hall News Stand, Clason & Fletcher's, 1119 O Street, A. T. Leming & Co's, 1106 O Street, The Gotham News Stand, 118 South 11th St, Keith Bros., 111 North 11th Street, Ed. Young, 1090 O Street.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Advertisers are requested to send in their favors as early as possible, not later than four o'clock Friday afternoon, as the Courier goes to press that evening. When ordering your advertisement insert with this request will save us trouble and yourself annoyance. We are daily adding to our list of subscribers, employing a man especially for that sole purpose, and claim that as an advertising medium the Courier is unequalled.

ELEGANT

HOLLIDAY : GOODS.

W. R. DENNIS,

Hatter and Furnisher,

117 O Street.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

No work out for mud. Yes, it's cold, so we're told. Linen sale at Oakley & Co's. E. Hallett, jeweler, 1125 O street. Delicious lunches at Brown's Café. Oysters, fresh, fat and fine at Brown's. Whitebread Coal and Lime Company. Hickey, Stevens & Co, 1541 to 1545 O St. But wasn't it a daisy for an initial blizzard? Don Cameron, 1090 O street, for lunches. Trickey & Co., wholesale and retail jewelers. 25 per cent. off on all cloaks at O. R. Oakley & Co. Thousand mile tickets for sale at 115 South Tenth street. Lincoln to Chicago without change via the Elkhorn line. Kern & Roberts, dentist Room 33 Alexander Block. Oysters in every style, fine and fresh, at Don Cameron's. Wm. McLaughlin took the Flyer for California yesterday. Try Hutchins & Hyatt's Mendota lump for domestic purposes. Canon City Coal again at the Whitebread Coal and Lime Co. Hickey, Stevens & Co., 1541 to 1545 O street, sell for cash only.

After the club parties, go to Brown's new café for a delicious lunch.

Dr. Bailey, residence Thirteenth and G; office, 1225 O; telephone 617.

Before insuring look up the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York.

Doctor B. F. Bailey, office and residence corner of Thirteenth and G streets.

The Missouri Pacific railroad run free reclining chair cars on all through trains.

Give us a cash order for cash. Hickey Stevens & Co, 1541 to 1545 O street.

Hutchins & Hyatt make a specialty of seasoned hard and soft wood, cut to order.

Roast Turkey, Goose and all kinds of meats at Don Cameron's every day for dinner.

Secure some of the bargains in the remnant sale at O. R. OAKLEY & CO'S Blankets one-half price at

OAKLEY & CO'S

The Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. W. B. Hastings, District Agent, 128 south 10th street.

Prof. F. M. Gibault's instructions are valuable. Studio in the Ledwith block, corner 11th and P streets.

All sizes of best grade hard coal, nicely screened and always on hand at Hutchins & Hyatt, 1040 O street.

Brown's Vienna Coffee and Oyster house in the opera house block is the neatest and noblest resort in the city.

"It's only a question of time," and a short time, too, as to when your rheumatism will yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it.

French Tricots, 54 inches wide, 50 cents per yard—usual price $1.

O. R. OAKLEY & CO'S

F for all kinds of society stationery, such as invitations, programs, cards, menus etc. call at the COURIER office in the New Burr block.

With prompt and courteous treatment, Hutchins & Hyatt solicit your orders for anything in the line of hard or soft coal. Telephone 225

Go east by the St. Louis and the Missouri Pacific railroad and avoid all omnibus transfers; all changes made in Union depots via this route. Chair cars free.

Wedding stationery, invitations, programs and all fine printing our specialty. Call and see specimens of our work. Wessel & Dobbs, 181 North Eleventh street.

Great Remnant Sale

O. R. OAKLEY & CO'S

Bets & Howell have received a full line of Monarch California Canned goods. Their excellence is known to every lover of delicious fruit.

Burlington Route California Excursion. Last cheap excursion by the Burlington Route Feb. 10th. Tickets $60.00. Good for six months $60.00. Excursion tickets sold every day. For tickets, rates of fare, etc., apply to

A. C. ZIMMER,

City Pass. Agent.

Louie Meyer made a short business trip to Des Moines this week.

Lane & Palmer have disposed of their drug business to Dr. Childs.

The B & M. track has all been cleared and trains running on time.

Mr. T. H. Cotter, publisher of the Omaha Chronicle, came down Wednesday.

Ed. Wessel is now domiciled as salesman in his uncle's store at Nebraska City.

Mr. Max Hohn, of Nebraska City, was a snowbound visitor in Lincoln Thursday.

Mr. H. C. Cheney, traveling passenger agent of the Elkhorn line, was in the city Wednesday.

Conductor Geo. Alberts is rejoicing over a good-looking boy baby that arrived Sunday night.

Sleighting parties will be all the go now for a few days, unless the weather turns too frigid.

Mr. Gorham F. Betts was confined to his room several days this week by a severe sprain.

The state historical society held several interesting sessions in the University chapel this week.

Mrs. E. M. Wilcox, a former resident of Lincoln but now of Kansas City, is visiting in the city.

Mr. W. W. Webster, of the boot and shoe firm of Webster & Briscoe, is in the east purchasing new goods.

Judge Brown, whose term of office expired last week, expects to locate in Broken Bow for the practice of law.

Miss Anna Van Buskirk returned Wednesday from Plattsmouth, where she had been visiting her friend, Miss Helen Owens.

Miss May Potvin will leave next Tuesday for Omaha, where she will spend a few days, also playing for the ladies musical.

Miss Lillie Potvin left Tuesday on a visit to the family of Dr. Arnold J. Hendershot, at Hebron. She will be absent a fortnight.

While the clerks were scrubbing out Tuesday evening a stove in Harley's drug store was overturned and a small fire resulted.

Governor Thayer and military staff were present at the inauguration of Governor Larabee at Des Moines, by special invitation.

Mr. J. E. Houtz and wife returned Sunday from Chicago. Mrs. H. is somewhat improved in health, and glad to get back home.

Charlie Benson is the biggest man in West Lincoln, and all on account of a bran now baby which arrived at the parental home on Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hargreaves have issued invitations for an "at home" on Monday evening next. The printing is on tin, and decidedly unique.

The German club will give one of their pleasant dances at Masonic Temple next Wednesday evening. Numbers will be given at nine promptly.

The concert for the benefit of the Home for the Friendless at the Funk Mound evening was a very successful one, both artistically and financially.

Misses Gertrude Ziemer, Bertie Burr and McKenzie and Harry Lansing, John McBride and Frank Burr have returned to school at Fairbault, Minn.

A select party will be given at Masonic Temple on Tuesday evening next by a number of young gentlemen. It promises to be a very elegant affair.

As soon as the weather will allow Hallett, the jeweler, will remove to his new quarters and the drawing will take place as soon as possible thereafter.

Mr. B. Inman and Capt. J. Lloyd of St. Louis, have located in Lincoln and will hereafter interest themselves in the business of Redmond, Cleary & Co.

Miss Jettie Wilkinson returned to her home at Des Moines, Iowa, after a visit of three weeks with her friend Miss Lulu Canfield, corner E and Seventeenth streets.

The new pipe organ of the Presbyterian church arrived Wednesday morning. It was presented to the church by Mr. John R. Clark and Mr. J. D. McFarland.

The COURIER neglected to return thanks to Messrs. Hutchins & Hyatt, the enterprising coal dealers, for a very handsome calendar, showing a sweet cherub face.

Mr. E. E. Bennett, treasurer and manager of the Wisconsin Furniture & Coffin Co., is visiting at his old home in the Badger state. He will be absent about a month.

The Lincoln press club has re-organized, elected officers, appointed committees and will endeavor to keep alive hereafter. The next meeting will be held Friday evening.

A rising young business man and the daughter of a prominent citizen will be united in marriage next Wednesday evening. Only immediate friends and relatives will be present.

Ben, little son of Mr. C. VanRaden, residing at 944 E street, had the misfortune to fall from a hobby-horse Sunday and broke his right arm. The little sufferer is mending rapidly.

Today is the last day of the poultry and pet stock show at Metropolitan rink. The bad weather of the past few days seriously interfered with the attendance, but the showing is a very good one.

Mr. H. J. Whitmore returned Sunday evening from a very pleasant visit with friends and relatives at Dayton, Ohio. Howard disappointed a great many of his friends by returning home alone.

The German Catholics held a largely attended meeting Sunday at which preliminary steps were taken for the organization of a church to embrace only the German element of that denomination.

The Pleasant Hour club hop which was to occur Thursday evening has been postponed till tonight. Members are requested to come as early in the evening as possible—at 8:30—owing to the short time for dancing.

Miss Lillie Chamberlain of Omaha, who was soprano soloist at the Home for Friendless concert Monday evening, returned home yesterday. She was the guest while in the city of Miss Sage Turner, 1734 N street.

John R. Clark and family, Gerry Baum, R. C. Manley, Mr. Lottley, Fred Hovey, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Binkley, C. F. White and a number of persons from different points in the state occupied a sleeper on the Missouri Pacific Wednesday night, bound for Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. Charles Herold left Tuesday, for Philadelphia, where he will get posted on spring styles of clothing. Being the Lincoln agent of Wanasamaker & Brown he will make the immense establishment his headquarters while in the city, expecting to return the latter part of the coming week.

The Pleasant Hour Juniors gave their regular fortnightly hop at Masonic Temple last evening, and notwithstanding the severity of the weather a large number were present and enjoyed themselves greatly. Owing to the press banquet and the consequent early closing of our forms, a list of those present could not be obtained.

Mr. C. Robert Richter left Tuesday for Atkinson, Georgia on a short visit and is rumored now that he has gone to see his autumn haired darling. Furthermore a hint from his most intimate friends, has it that he is expected to return double. So may it be. The COURIER will be pleased to welcome Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Richter to this fair but just at present, cold climate of Nebraska.

STATE PRESS MEETING.

Much Good Accomplished and Ample Enjoyment had by all.

The annual meeting of the Nebraska Press association which convened at the Capital Hotel Thursday evening, and held a very interesting session yesterday, may be said to have been one of the most profitable and pleasant meetings of the state press in Nebraska. The attendance was quite large and had the train not been snow bound by the blizzard of Thursday, it would have been the largest the association has ever had.

The meeting as all are free to confess has been of continuous interest and we think much good has been accomplished. Mr. Herbert of the National association made an eloquent address before the convention yesterday morning showing the various ideas and reasons why the Nebraska association should become a member of the national organization. His remarks were closely listened to and applauded. President Bushnell's message was a very interesting document.

The poem of Mr. Walt Mason Thursday evening of "an editorial nightmare" was certainly a charming piece of work and hugely enjoyed by all present. Mr. Wells, the orator of the occasion, read an able paper which was replete with excellent points and advanced a number of popular sentiments.

At the afternoon session, the following officers were elected. President, H. M. Bushnell. Omaha Bee, Lincoln. 1st Vice President, C. H. Geer. State Journal, Lincoln. 2nd Vice President, T. J. Pickett. Guard, Bloomington. 3rd Vice President, A. W. Ladd. News, Albion. Secretary, F. G. Simmons. Reporter, Seward. Treasurer, A. B. Hayes. State Journal, Lincoln.

Home Industries First.

The COURIER has always advocated the policy of keeping all money, or at least as nearly so as possible, at home to foster local industries and buy nothing abroad that can be obtained at home. In this connection it is gratifying to know that gentlemen who heretofore sent east for shirts, collars, cuffs etc., find it both profitable and expedient to leave their orders at the Lincoln Shirt Factory, 118 South Tenth Street. The fact that this establishment is fully prepared to execute all work with general satisfaction to the trade is best known by the immense trade they supply, not only in this city, but throughout the state. This establishment is by no means a new thing in Lincoln, but is one of our prominent business institutions, with an established reputation that in itself is sufficient to increase the business of the house in the future as it has in the past. Reliable eastern prices are always duplicated, and first class workmanship with an excellent fit is always assured. It will pay you to inspect the goods and ask for prices at the Lincoln Shirt Factory before ordering elsewhere and we feel assured they can satisfy you.

Great Remnant Sale at O. R. OAKLEY & CO'S

Jacksonville, Florida, excursion tickets on sale at Elkhorn ticket office, 115 So. 10th St.

Tickets to points in Kansas, Missouri and tickets via Omaha on sale at Elkhorn office, 115 So. 10th St.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh by expelling impurity from the blood, which is the cause of the complaint. Give it a trial.

Go to Ed Young's for elegant cigars and tobacco. He will give you the lowest prices and the finest goods in the city. No. 1020 O street.

Don't fail to see Shilling Bro's big ad on another page in this issue. It will pay you to call and inspect their stock.

The COURIER is under obligations to Mr. A. C. Zeimer for an elegant pack of playing cards issued by the great Burlington route. They are very neat and handsome.

Rheumatism

Is undoubtedly caused by lactic acid in the blood. This acid attacks the fibrous tissues, and causes the pains and aches in the back, shoulders, knees, ankles, hips and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

Stray Jokes.

When a man becomes firmly convinced that he is a genius it is then that the fringes slowly begin to form on the bottom of his trousers leg.—Scranton Truth.

The man who imagines that his existence is necessary to the movement of the world is generally buried in a pine coffin without trimmings.—Nebraska State Journal.

Thomas Nast, the caricaturist, was unable to lecture in Bismarck, as it was impossible to heat the hall in which the lecture was to be given. It must be a pretty cold day when Nast can't draw a house.—Norristown Herald.

Philadelphia has a parrot that prays. Send him as a missionary among the countless profane and fallen of his race.—Martha's Vineyard Herald.

"If you saw the man rifling your trousers," said the magistrate, to whom a citizen had complained of being robbed, "why didn't you grapple with him?" "Well, you see, your honor," said the citizen, "I was afraid of waking up my wife, an' she's the darndest coward about burglars you ever see."—The Epoch.

The occasional contributor dropped into the sanctum wearily. Seated at the desk was a beetle browed printer. "Are you the mule editor?" softly inquired the visiting contributor. "Nay," answered the apparition, posing a proof slip in his delicately discolored digits. "I am the calf editor. Do you wish to be edited?"—Washington Critic.

There is a restaurant waiter in Lincoln who deserves to be honored. A patron said to him yesterday: "Waiter, pass me those molasses," and he replied, "How many?"—Lincoln (Neb.) Journal.

Two New York electricians have invented a flying machine. As both of the inventors are still alive, of course they have not yet practically tested their contrivance.—Norristown Herald.

The secret is out at last. The elevated railroad guards call out the stations in Volapuk.—New York Tribune.

A Lucky Trip.

"What have you been doing for a living lately?" asked a very tough looking citizen of a man who looked as if he might be a boon companion.

"Burglarizing."

"What was your last job?"

"I tackled the residence of a real estate agent last night."

"How did that rate?"

"I got away without getting anything."

"I got away without buying a house and lot."—Merchant Traveler.

BILL NYE ON J. CAESAR.

He Makes a Few Interesting Comments on the Play.

The play of "Julius Caesar" which has been at the Academy of Music this week, has made a great hit. Messrs. Booth and Barrett very wisely decided that if it succeeded here it would do well anywhere. If the people of New York like a play and say so it is almost sure to go elsewhere. Judging by this test the play of "Julius Caesar" has a glowing future ahead of it. It was written by Gentlemen Shakespeare, Bacon and Donnelly, who collaborated together on it. Shakespeare did the lines and plot, Bacon furnished the cipher and Donnelly called attention to it through the papers.

The scene of "Julius Caesar" is laid in Rome, just before the railroad was completed to that place. In order to understand the play itself we must glance briefly at the leading characters which are introduced and upon whom its success largely depends.

Julius Caesar flourished considerably from 100 to 44 B. C., when a committee of representative citizens and property owners of Rome called upon him, and on behalf of the people begged leave to assassinate him as a mark of esteem. He was stabbed twenty-three times between Pompey's Pillar and 11 o'clock, many of which were mortal. This account of the assassination is taken from a local paper, and is graphic, succinct and lacks the sensational elements so common and lamentable in our own time. Caesar was the implacable foe of the aristocracy, and refused to wear a plug hat up to the day of his death. Sulla once said, before Caesar had made much of a showing, that some day this young man would be the ruin of the aristocracy, and twenty years afterward, when Caesar sacked, assassinated and holo-causted a whole theological seminary for saying "yeather" and "nyether," the old settlers recalled what Sulla had said.

Caesar continued to eat pie with a knife and in many other ways to endear himself to the masses until 68, B. C., when he ran for governor. Afterward he was elected, during the terms of which office he sought to introduce a number of new games and to extend the limit on some of the older ones. From this to the senate was but a step.

In 62, B. C., he went to Spain as propraetor, intending to write a book about the Spanish people and their customs as soon as he got back, but he was so busy on his return that he did not have time to do so.

Caesar was a powerful man with the people, and while in the senate worked hard for his constituents, while other senators were having their photographs taken. He went into the army when the war broke out, and after killing a great many people, against whom he certainly could not have had anything personal, he returned, headed by the Roman silver cornet band, and leading a procession over two miles in length. It was at this time that he was tendered a crown just as he was passing the city wall, but thrice he refused it. After each refusal the people applauded and encored him till he had refused it again. It is at about this time that the play opens. Caesar had just arrived on a speckled courser and dismounted outside the town. He comes in at the head of the procession, with the understanding that the crown is to be offered him just as he crosses over to the court house.

Here Cassius and Brutus meet, and Cassius tries to make a mugwump of Brutus, so that they can organize a new movement. Mr. Edwin Booth takes the character of Brutus and Mr. Lawrence Barrett takes that of Cassius. I would not want to take the character of Cassius myself, even if I had run short of character and needed some very much indeed, but Mr. Barrett takes it and does it first rate. Mr. Booth also plays Brutus so that old settlers here say it seems almost like having Brutus here among us again.

In act 4 Brutus sits up late reading a story by E. P. Roe, and just as he is in the most exciting part of it the ghost of the assassinated Caesar appears and states that it will meet him with hard gloves at Philippi. Brutus looks bored, and says that he is in no condition, but the ghost leaves it that way, and Brutus looks still more bored till the ghost goes out through a white oak door without opening it.

At Philippi Brutus sees that there is no hope of police interference, and as before time is called he inserts his sword into his being and dies, while the polite American audience puts on its overcoat and goes out, looking over its shoulder to see that Brutus does not take advantage of this moment, while the people are going away, to resuscitate himself.

Booth and Barrett have the makings of good actors in them. I met both of these gentlemen in Wyoming some years ago. I was not by accident. They were going to California and I was coming back. By some oversight we had both selected the same track, and we were thrown together. I do not know whether they will recall my face or not. I was riding on the sleeper truck at the time of the accident. I always take a sleeper, and always did. I rode on the truck because I didn't want to ride inside the car and have to associate with a wealthy porter who looked down upon me. I am the man who was found down the creek the next day gathering wild ferns and murmuring, "Where am I?"

The play of "Julius Caesar" is one which brings out the meanness and magnanimity of Cassius, and emphasizes the mistaken patriotism of Brutus. It is full of pathos, duplicity, assassination, treachery, erroneous loyalty, suicide, hypocrisy and all the intrigue, jealousy, cowardice and devilry which characterized the politics of fifty years B. C., but which now, thanks to the enlightenment and refinement which twenty centuries have brought, are known no more forever. Let us not forget, as we enter upon the year 1888, that it is a presidential year, and that all acrimony will be buried under the dew and acrimony of the daisies, and that, no matter how high party spirit may run, there will be no personal animosity.—Bill Nye in New York World.

PER FEC TION.

Northern Queen Wash Board.

They are put together stronger, and made of better material than any other. They work faster, better and easier. They last longer which makes them cheaper. They save soap. They save wear and tear of clothing because the rubbing is much lighter.

National Clothes Dryer.

Has 42 feet of Drying Rod. Stands 5 1/2 feet high 2 1/2 feet long, and is only 2 1/2 inches in thickness when closed. Light, strong and adjusted in a moment. The cheapest and best.

FOR SALE BY THE

Lincoln Hardware Co.

AGENCY FOR

Acorn Stoves and Ranges

230-232 South 11th Street.

Telephone 273.

«NOW OPEN»

HUFFMAN & RICHTER.

Tailors

LINCOLN, NEB.

224 O STREET.

Skinner's Stables

12th St., bet. P and Q.

Calls for Balls, Parties, etc., Promptly Made, with Stylish Rigs, Coupes and Hacks.

TELEPHONE 248.

Fine Driving and Riding Livery

always ready for service, day or night.

Union - Pacific - Railway,

The Overland Route.

Shortest and Safest Route to all points in

Colorado, Utah, California, Montana, Idaho, Oregon, Washing'n Territory.

THE OVERLAND ROUTE

Take the overland flyer and save one day to all Pacific coast points. THE UNION PACIFIC IS THE FREE CHAIR CAR LINE.

Running into Union Depots and connecting with the fast limited trains of all lines for all points east, north and south. Through tickets on modern day coaches. Baggage checked through to destination from all points east in the United States and Canada.

Sleeper accommodations reserved in through Pullman Palace cars from the Missouri river to the Pacific coast.

E. B. SLOSSON, Agent.

1044 O Street, Lincoln, Nebraska.

T. J. POTTER, First Vice President.

E. L. LOMAX, Ass. Gen. Pass. and Ticket Agt.

J. S. TEBBETS, Gen. Pass. and Ticket Agt.

BOOKS, THREE CENTS EACH!

The following books are published in neat pamphlet form, printed from good readable type on good paper, and many of them handsomely illustrated. They are without exception the cheapest books ever published in any land or language, and furnish to the masses of the people an opportunity to secure the best literature of the day at the most trifling expense. In any other series these great works would cost many times the price at which they are here offered. Each one is complete in itself.

- Wonders of the World, Nature and Ocean. Contains descriptions and illustrations of the most wonderful sights of nature and of man. Very interesting and instructive. By the greatest writer who ever lived. In one complete volume. 100 pages. 3 cents.
- A Pleasure Excursion, and Other Sketches. By "JOHN ALDER" writing. A collection of interesting funny sketches by the most popular humorous writer of the day.
- The Aunt Scolding Wives. By CHAS. ANTHONY, author of "The King's Ransom." A most ridiculously funny book. In every way equal to "Widow's Heart."
- Christmas Stories. By CHAS. ANTHONY. Contains a number of the most charming Christmas stories ever written by the greatest writer who ever lived. In one complete volume. 100 pages. 3 cents.
- Popular Quotations. Containing the origin and authorship of many phrases frequently met in reading and conversation. A valuable work of reference.
- Low Life in New York. A series of vivid pictures showing the dark side of life in the great city. Illustrated.
- The Road to Wealth. Not an advertising circular, but a thoroughly practical work, pointing out a way by which all may make money easily, rapidly and honestly.
- His Noble Heart. A Novel. By MISS MAY ANNE FLANNERY.
- A Hated Life. A Novel. By MISS ANNE FLANNERY.
- An Old Man's Sacrifice. A Novel. By MISS ANNE FLANNERY.
- The Pencil-Hunter. A Novel. By M. T. CALSON.
- The Old Dutch Clock. A Novel. By FLORENCE MARSH.
- The Pearl of the Ocean. A Novel. By CHAS. ANTHONY.
- Hollow Ash Hall. A Novel. By MARGARET BLOOM.
- Under the Lilacs. A Novel. By EVELYN W. PRATT.
- The Diamond Bracelet. A Novel. By Mrs. HENRY WOOD.
- The Lawyer's Secret. A Novel. By MISS M. E. BACON.
- The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. A Novel. By M. R. LUTHER.
- A Wicked Girl. A Novel. By MARY CECIL HAY.
- Forgive the Fathers. A Novel. By Mrs. ALABAMA BROWN.
- Between Two Stars. A Novel. By the author of "Dora Thorne." Illustrated.
- The Nine of Hearts. A Novel. By E. L. FAZLON.
- Dora's Fortune. A Novel. By FLORENCE WARD.
- A Lost Marriage. A Novel. By MISS MURPHY.
- The Gilded Mirror. A Novel. By WILLIAM COLLIER.
- The Palace of Aps. A Novel. By FLORENCE MARSH.
- Monte Grande. A Novel. By Mrs. EDWIN WOOD.
- Forgive the Fathers. A Novel. By Mrs. ALABAMA BROWN.
- A Playwright's Daughter. A Novel. By Mrs. ANNA BROWN.
- Fair but False. A Novel. By the author of "Dora Thorne." Illustrated.
- Lincoln's Cabin. A Novel. By Mrs. M. Y. VICTOR.
- Flourish. A Novel. By Mrs. M. Y.